A Constructive, Purposeful, Interesting, Red-Blended Summer for your Boy.

Wanted: Fifty Pioneers to blaze trails for the Lincoln School (an educational, industrial, and agricultural community of real men and live boys, organized for the development of manliness, efficiency, and good citizenship, and opening its regular sessions October first with fifteen buildings on a thousand acres in the Berkshires).

Plus all the advantages of the usual summer camp in the way of mountain and forest, lake and stream, camp life, and sports, these "trail-blazers" who come in June will have actual experience in agriculture and forestry, concrete construction, animal raising, carpentry and practical manual training, scouting, exploring and mapping out the surrounding country, some study of good citizenship and real literature on rainy days and quiet evenings, and constant association with live men in planning and doing things of intrinsic interest and usefulness. A life in a word, calculated to send a boy back to his home with an efficient body, an alert and broadened mind, and a desire "for service"—the watchword and motive of the Lincoln School.

The total charges—no extras—for three months beginning June 15-18 are one hundred dollars, or sixty dollars for six weeks. Twelve or more boys from this summer group will be selected for free scholarships in the Lincoln School.

MASONIC TRIBUTE

PAID CHAMBERLIN

Rose Croix Services for Late High Official.

GENEROUS AND BENEVOLENT

Exercise of Charitable Purposes Dwell Upon by Speakers—Following Services, Body is Taken to Union Station and Sent to Texas for Interment—List of Pallbearers.

As a testimonial of the respect and esteem in which Dr. Austin Beverly Chamberlin, secretary general to the Supreme Council of Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons, was held by that organization, one of the most distinguished assemblages of Masons ever witnessed in this city gathered around the casket of the late high official at the cathedral and paid tribute to his memory. The general theme discussed was the generous and benevolent charity which had always been unostentatiously exercised by the man they had come to mourn.

Affected by Services. During the Rose Croix services conducted at 8 o'clock by the Evangelist Chapter, Knights Rose Croix, there was scarcely a person present in the chamber whose eyes were not tear-dimmed. James H. McIntosh, thirty-second degree, as vice master, officiated, assisted by Robert P. Menall, thirty-second degree, as senior warden; Elmer E. Simpson, K. C. C. H., junior warden, and John H. von Herrmann, orator.

The Rose Croix services are the most beautiful and impressive of the Scottish Rite ritual. It was edited and compiled by Dr. Chamberlin in 1892, and is in use throughout the entire jurisdiction and known the world over in Scottish Rite circles.

Following the services the body, borne by the members of Albert Pike Consistory Camp Guard as active pallbearers and members of the honorary thirty-third degree as honorary pallbearers, was escorted to the Union Station. The funeral cortege extended from the cathedral to C street. Hundreds of persons who had been unable to gain admission to the chamber stood in the streets with uncovered heads while the procession was being formed.

During the time the body lay in state yesterday a continual line of persons passed the bier with bowed heads.

The active pallbearers were Capt. Frank E. Gibson, Lieut. Lance C. McLean, William H. Rowe, Oliver Bennett, Frank E. Koch, Benjamin Goldsmith, Clarence E. Bright, Bernard Baer, Milton Baer, Elmer C. Wood, Austin J. Leister, Isaac W. Wright, W. Seton Turner, and S. L. Brooks, all thirty-second degree. Eight officiated at the cathedral and eight at the Union Station.

The honorary pallbearers were S. E. Austin, W. L. Boyden, Allen Bunsell, A. B. Coolidge, G. E. Cason, Harrison Dingman, H. R. Evans, Louis Goldsmith, Samuel Hart, Jacobus S. Jones, Alexander H. Holt, Stirling Kerr, James Lansburgh, Alexander McKeichan, W. O. Rome, Winfield Scott Schley, F. A. Sebring, J. H. Trimble, S. H. Walker, Rev. R. P. Williams, L. Cabell Williams, W. S. Woodman, and Edgar Snyder, thirty-third degree, of Omaha.

Members of the Supreme Council present were James D. Richardson, William Bunsby, John W. Murray, and Charles E. Rosenblatt.

Accompanying the body to Galveston, Tex., were William L. Boyden, librarian of the Supreme Council, an official representative of the Supreme Council; the widow, Mrs. Emma Chamberlin; a sister, Mrs. Sadie C. Rome, and G. W. Kidd, a brother-in-law.

Midnight services of the Knights of Kadosh probably will be held in Galveston Sunday night, and Monday at the grave Rose Croix services will be held.

ORAL HEARINGS ORDERED.

Justice Barnard Issues Writ of Mandamus Against Commissioners.

Justice Barnard yesterday granted a writ of mandamus against the Commissioners in favor of Policeman Joseph L.
